

*And the Lord said,
"If you had faith like a grain of mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea.'
and it would obey you (Luke 17:6).*

October 6, 2019

We welcome you in the name of the Lord Jesus.

We are honored with your presence. If you do not have a church home, you are invited to join us regularly. Please introduce yourself to Pastor Jeremy Lucke as you leave today and sign the guest book in the entryway. You may also wish to complete one of the pew cards and drop it in the offering plate. Beverages, snacks and fellowship time follow the service in the Fellowship Hall. Everyone is welcome.

The ringing of the bell and the lighting of the Christ candle mark the beginning of our service and a time for quiet meditation, prayer and inward reflection as we begin our worship.

Holy Communion is celebrated every first, third and fifth Sundays of the month and will follow the order of service in the bulletin. Guests, if you are a baptized Christian and share our faith in Jesus as Savior and have been instructed in the meaning and use of the Lord's Supper, you are invited to come to the altar. If you prefer grape juice to wine, take a cup from the center of the communion tray. We also have gluten-free wafers available. If you desire a gluten-free wafer, ask the server. May the body and blood of Jesus, present in the bread and wine, be a blessing to you. There are times during the service when you will be asked to stand if you are able. Please feel free to remain seated if standing is difficult.

Children are welcome at our worship services. However, if you prefer, Peace Lutheran has a nursery equipped for children three years old and younger. The room is unstaffed and can be accessed via the hallway from the narthex. There is a speaker that will allow you to listen to the service. You are also welcomed to use the Fellowship Hall and hallway to walk a noisy child; it also has speakers. Please speak to an usher if you need assistance.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CHURCH DIRECTORY: Please look at the church directory in the entryway and make any corrections that need to be made to your information. If you are not in the directory, please add your information!

BLOOD DRIVE: Peace will be hosting a blood drive on October 18 starting with the first appointment at 1:00 pm. Please invite folks to stop by or make an appointment ahead of time. We also need those delicious homemade cookies that have made Peace THE place to donate!

ALL SAINTS SUNDAY: November 3 is All Saints' Sunday and we would like to start getting names of those people you would like to see remembered during this service.

SMART READING: This wonderful program is looking for volunteers to go into schools and read with the children. There is more information on the bulletin board in the hallway outside the fellowship hall.

BAZAAR: Fall is here, and it is getting to be that time again...the Bazaar is being prepared. There are many ways to get involved and to assist with the event. Gift baskets are always a huge draw...please see the newsletter for ideas on how you can help with this. Homemade Crafts or Cookies are always sought after as gifts and stocking stuffers. Step in and let Jani Burton know where you want to help. And let Kay Glathar know if you have questions on the baskets!

SPECIAL FELLOWSHIP OCTOBER 27: Nancy Abernathy, Cheryl Miller, & Sandi Labahn are planning a special Fellowship Hour and will be providing all the food for this social time.

GETTING A RIDE: If you would like to be able to attend some of the evening events, or when Advent gets here, attend worship, please let the church office know so we can try and connect you to someone who is waiting to be asked to help out!

Old Testament: Habakkuk 1:1–4; 2:1–4

The oracle that Habakkuk the prophet saw.

O Lord, how long shall I cry for help,
and you will not hear?
Or cry to you “Violence!”
and you will not save?
Why do you make me see iniquity,
and why do you idly look at wrong?
Destruction and violence are before me;
strife and contention arise.
So the law is paralyzed,
and justice never goes forth.
For the wicked surround the righteous;
so justice goes forth perverted.
I will take my stand at my watchpost
and station myself on the tower, and look out to see what he will say to me,
and what I will answer concerning my complaint.

And the Lord answered me:

“Write the vision;
make it plain on tablets,
so he may run who reads it.
For still the vision awaits its appointed time;
it hastens to the end—it will not lie.
If it seems slow, wait for it;
it will surely come; it will not delay.
“Behold, his soul is puffed up; it is not upright within him,
but the righteous shall live by his faith.

Epistle: 2 Tim. 1:1–14

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God according to the promise of the life that is in Christ Jesus,

To Timothy, my beloved child:
Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

I thank God whom I serve, as did my ancestors, with a clear conscience, as I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. As I remember your tears, I long to see you, that I may be filled with joy. I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, dwells in you as well. For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands, for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control.

Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord, nor of me his prisoner, but share in suffering for the gospel by the power of God, who saved us and called us to a holy calling, not because of our works but because of his own purpose and grace, which he gave us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, and which now has been manifested through the appearing of our Savior Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel, for which I was appointed a preacher and apostle and teacher, which is why I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am convinced that he is able to guard until that day what has been entrusted to me. Follow the pattern of the sound words that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. By the Holy Spirit who dwells within us, guard the good deposit entrusted to you.

Gospel: Luke 17:1–10

And he said to his disciples, “Temptations to sin are sure to come, but woe to the one through whom they come! It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck and he were cast into the sea than that he should cause one of these little ones to sin. Pay attention to yourselves! If your brother sins, rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him, and if he sins against you seven times in the day, and turns to you seven times, saying, ‘I repent,’ you must forgive him.”

The apostles said to the Lord, “Increase our faith!” And the Lord said, “If you had faith like a grain of mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.

“Will any one of you who has a servant plowing or keeping sheep say to him when he has come in from the field, ‘Come at once and recline at table’? Will he not rather say to him, ‘Prepare supper for me, and dress properly, and serve me while I eat and drink, and afterward you will eat and drink’? Does he thank the servant because he did what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were commanded, say, ‘We are unworthy servants; we have only done what was our duty.’”
